

About this file

This note-taking file helps you stay focused while watching the first episode of Severance by Apple TV + by guiding you toward key ideas and useful language. It includes gap-fill exercises that highlight important vocabulary and expressions in advanced Business English.

Severance

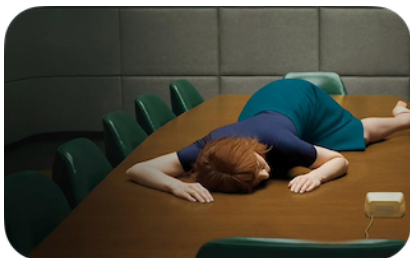

Season 1 Episode 1

Watch on Apple TV

Gap-Fill Focus

Fill in the missing words as you watch.

Now, I know you're sleepy, but I just bet it'll make you feel

_____. (well again)

I'd be just thrilled to chat once we've _____ the survey. (gone through)

To _____ of your memory, what is or was the color of your mother's eyes? (based on what you can remember)

I've _____ for Petey before, so it shouldn't be that big a thing. (done his work)

Mark, at this time I _____ the freedom to serve Kier in the advanced role of MR department chief. (I give you)

A handshake is available _____. (if you want one)

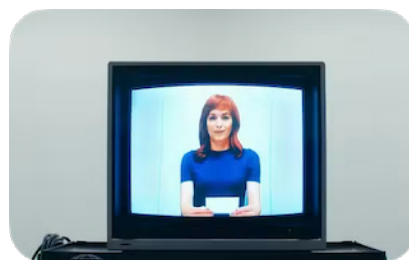

Can we just _____? Please. (wait a moment)

I understand you don't feel it's _____ for you here at Lumon. (going well)

I have, of my own _____ (free choice), elected to undergo the procedure _____ (informally called) severance.

My access to my memories will be _____ (decided depending on my location).

I just don't _____ the visceral element. What does it feel like? (fully understand)

One's memories are _____, so when you're not at work, you have no recollection of what it is you do there. (split)

But, Mark, I stand behind you _____. (fully)

Note-Taking

Name

Date

New vocabulary

- to confer upon somebody
- available upon request
- to take a beat

Notes

Summary